My dear Miss Davies!

I send you a letter for Mrs Modigliano, and hope you will make the acquaintance of this most accomplished and charming lady. - Today is Gertrudes wedding; I am so disappointed at not being with the dear people at Airlie Gardens! But duty binds me here: the School, the School!!!
Rarely have I felt the sacrifices it involves for me more.
However I must not grumble; it won't help. -
I wish I could have a drive

Then, when to S. Minato with you and Signora Modigliano; how glorious it must be just now.

We had at last a few spring days, and the sun is shining gloriously on Mother's last drive today. I am thinking of dear old Arthur Burnand too. —

Let me hear if you have time how your concert went off. If you see Signor Biaggi, give him my kind regards, and also to Buonamici. But above all many greetings to Miss Frost from your
